Hiring – Brevard 100 Coordinator

ReThink Energy Florida’s Mission is to educate, engage, and empower Floridians to take action and achieve a just transition to clean energy for a healthier, more sustainable environment through youth education, adult engagement, and community organizing.

ReThink Energy Florida is selecting a temporary, part-time (~10 hours per week) Intern to coordinate organizing residents, local organizations, businesses, and other stakeholders to generate the political will to encourage a local 100% Net Renewable Energy commitment from a city within Brevard County. In this process we will focus on supporting the development of our local ReThink Energy Florida chapter. Tasks include:

- Networking with local environmental organizations, nontraditional organizations, businesses, and individual stakeholders, to recruit groups into the project and and individuals into the local chapter
- Building a coalition to take action to persuade a city in Brevard County commit to a 100% Net Renewable Energy goal
- Coordinating actions such as letter-writing events, phone banking parties, and recruiting people to speak to local elected officials
- Coordination of meetings and advocacy efforts toward key City Commissioners
- Weekly reports to the Campaign Director concerning activities that have occurred, successes and next steps

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities sought:

- Strong knowledge of the benefits of renewable energy and the risks associated with fossil fuel use and extraction
- Working knowledge of municipal government
- Ability to manage multiple projects, prioritize tasks, and track details
- Previous experience working as a leader on teams
- Previous experience coordinating volunteers
- Previous experience in building and coordinating coalitions
- Excellent verbal and written communications skills

While the local coordinator is expected to work independently, the Campaign Director is available as needed for coaching and mentoring on the project’s tasks and deliverables. The position is for approximately 10 hours per week. Hours will need to be somewhat flexible based on the needs and activities of the coalition and legislative activities. The position will pay $13/ hour, will begin in September and will end approximately 2/28/22 (with possibility of renewal).

To apply for the position, please submit a resume and cover letter to admin@rethinkenergyflorida.org with the Subject Line “Brevard 100 Organizer” by 8/23/2021.
